Description

This Oak box top desk has had a clean and has had some refinishing, it is now in a most useable tidy condition. A great size top work at and a larger than normal kneehole for your knees (29ins wide 24 high to nearest inch). It is in used condition and has not been all restored, just some minor attention, but we feel it is quite acceptable and at this price a serious bargain. The top has a good quality leather with a gold tooling as can be seen in the pictures, there is some marking but again nothing serious at all. There are nine drawers as is normal for one of these desks and there are brass swan neck handles on the drawers. Not original but there have been in place for quite a while. All in all a good useable oak box top desk that will not break the bank, the leather trimmed tub chair goes very well with this desk and the details can be seen on our web site.
