Description

A fine example of a late 19th century French deep red tortoise shell and cut brass inlaid Boulle mantel clock in the Louis XV style. The beautiful quality case of waisted design decorated with boulle work to the front, sides and interior. Finely cast ormolu mounts to the front and sides. The shaped glazed front with visible starburst pendulum and inlaid interior. The fully restored eight day movement with Brocot suspension, rack striking the hour & half hour on a single bell. The decorated circular gilt dial with enamel roman numeral cartouche tablets, cast brass ormolu bezel and convex glass. Blued steel hands. The French made movement numbered 2081. Overall this is a very impressive clock of slightly larger proportions and with the benefit of been decorated on the sides and interior. The case is in fine original condition with the tortoiseshell and boulle work in perfect order. The clock has been sympathetically cleaned and the movement fully restored to a high standard by our FBHI restorer with 12 months guarantee.
