Description

A very good quality Victorian mahogany pedestal writing desk stamped "W Priest 1 & 2 Tudor St Blackfriars". This quality pedestal desk was made by the famous cabinet maker who is known for the best quality library furniture of the mid 19th Century W Priest. The rectangular top having a tooled leather insert and mahogany banding with a thumb moulded edge over three moulded drawers. Each drawer having handcut dovetails, original turned wooden knob handles with central escutcheons and brass locks. The side frieze having a recessed panelled mould and recessed rounded corners to the fronts. The top removes, with each pedestal having three graduated drawers with polished sides and backs enabling this desk to stand freely within the room. Raised on a plinth base with eight hidden castors, this antique desk is in excellent condition with a wonderful colour and striking timbers. This Victorian pedestal desk is offered in fully restored condition and ready for use within the home. A rare find to have a pedestal desk stamped W Priest.
