Description

A good quality and of large proportions shaped Rosewood deep buttoned leather upholstered stool circa 1840. This oversized stool could well be used as a coffee table having a large deep buttoned top over a shaped solid rosewood base. With central carvings and the whole being raised on cabriole legs having carvings to the knee and foot. In excellent condition having being restored using traditional methods this very fine antique rosewood stool has a wonderful colour and excellent proportions. Rare to find stools of this size and quality nowadays
