Description

Stunning occasional table dating from the late 18th Century. The circular top is made of a single piece of oak on a turned baluster, urn and reeded support with tripod splayed legs. It has been sympathetically restored and is very sturdy with a good level top. It has the original blacksmith-made latch which is strong and in good order. The whole piece has a beautiful rich patina and is a lovely honest piece of country furniture. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery available, please get in touch for an accurate quote.
