Description

A wonderful small antique Edwardian bureau in mahogany with extensive satinwood inlay and marquetry designs. With superb colour and beautifully inlaid throughout, it has 3 single drawers with original brass drop handles and stands on square tapered legs. The fall front drops down and rests on pull supports to reveal pigeon holes and a small drawer to the interior. A really good quality bureau, beautifully inlaid with good colour and original warm patina. Construction/Wood: Mahogany / Satinwood & Exotic wood Inlays Condition Report: Good colour and patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Key works in drawers (not fall) . Old mend to back leg. Solid and sturdy. The fall has warped slightly over time, so it is raised at one side (see photo). Small filled splits to top (see photo). A couple of areas of marquetry lifting slightly on drawer fronts. Dimensions: Width: 63cm Depth: 44cm Height to Fall: 75cm Height to Top: 99cm
