Description

An elegant antique pine French cupboard or small wardrobe, (depending on what you would like to use it as), in excellent condition. Lovely french bracket feet and beautiful original external door hinges. The original lock and key is in good working order, and there are some unusual catches on the doors which are a lovely feature. The external hinges means the doors open flush, allowing you to access the cupboard with ease. The double doors currently open to an empty space. Please let us know if you would like shelves added or a new brass hanging rail. *One shelf and a new brass hanging rail is included in the polished price. It would make a nice addition to a child's room as the hanging space is internally deep enough for small hangers. It is currently in the bare wood, ready for wax polishing or painting. This particular piece is a lovely light pine, typical of French furniture of this time and will look fantastic once waxed. Height 57", width 51.5", depth 19", internal depth 16.5"
