Description

A set of three horse brasses on a substantial leather strap and a further single brass on leather. Where as horse brasses are always difficult to date unless very early, we have the advantage of the leather strap here. The long Strap has early fixings these, are clearly Victorian or Edwardian, we suggest almost certainly Victorian. They have clearly been used and must have seen many changes of the years. Most interesting items which could make a nice present perhaps and at a price that is not going to need any extra on a mortgage. The strap is 97 cms long and 4cms wide.
