Description

A beautiful example of a double wardrobe from the early 1800's, it is in excellent condition despite being very old. A charming piece of furniture with plenty of character. Curved edged top, and an attractive wavy edged bottom. Double panelled doors that open to nice size space, ready for us to fit a new brass hanging rail for you. Recently stripped to the bare wood, now ready for wax polishing. It will look beautiful once done so. As with most of our larger wardrobes, this particular one does dismantle. It will go through all doorways and up any tight stairways. (please note the back panel is one piece, so please ask for measurements if you are unsure as to whether it will fit through your doorways etc) Height 76", width 61", depth 23.5", internal depth 19"
