A precocious painter. At the age of ten he entered the School of Fine Arts of Olot and individually debuted, in 1929, at Galerías Laietanes, Barcelona. Only six years later he was appointed professor at the School of Fine Arts in his hometown. He exhibited his work in Spain, Mexico and Switzerland, and won first prize in the National Exhibition of Madrid and the International Palamos national award for landscape Foundation Estrada and the prize Ricardo Portabella. Barnadas, sketched with his style, was beyond the lessons of realism and impressionism, becoming part of the leading evolutionary moment of Catalonia. His work also includes the human, animal themes, still lifes, gypsy families and swimmers, re...
