Description

Aside the appearance and super rarity of this marvelous Art Deco clock on first viewing, one can't be distracted away from the condition as well, which for it's 90 odd years is nothing less than amazing. This really is an eyebrow raising clock in what can only be described as mint condition. This has to be one of the best examples of it's kind available on the market at the moment. The temptation to keep it is very high. We've had this Art Deco beauty fully serviced by an horologist and so comes to you in full working order. History Jaeger-LeCoultre (French pronunciation is a Swiss luxury watch and clock manufacturer based in Le Sentier, Switzerland, that dates back to the first half of the 19th century, founded by Antoine LeCoultre in 1833. The brand has hundreds of inventions and over a thousand calibres (movements) to its name, including the world's smallest calibre, one of the world's most complicated wristwatches and a timepiece of near-perpetual movement.
