Description

A lovely example of a 19th Century camphor wood trunk complete with original brass bound corners and substantial original brass swan neck carrying handles. The rich colour and wonderful patina of this trunk give it great appeal. There is a minor chip to the inside rim. This is not detrimental in any way and can't be seen when the chest is closed. The condition of the brasswork and handles is excellent as is the inside of the trunk. A superb trunk to use for storage or as a coffee table, a very stylish addition to any home. c.1880 Width: 35" (89cm) Depth: 19.75" (50cm) Height: 20.5" (52cm)
