Description

A superbly striking, Victorian, solid silver chalice. The cup of the chalice is beautifully engraved with floral design. The decorative engraving form four circular panels around the cup, two of which are engraved and the other two are free from any engravings. The cup stands on an attractive stem with a protruding central section which is beaded around the edge. The pedestal stand engraving is matched to that of the cup and also has a protruding beaded edge around the base rim. This chalice is wonderfully tactile and a good weight to hold. Very clear hallmarks are visible just below the rim of the chalice: Lion passant for sterling silver and Leopard's head for the London Assay Office and date mark for 1875. There is also a clear maker's mark: BH (this mark is unidentifiable). Condition: This chalice is in wonderful antique condition. Hallmarks: London 1875 : Measurements: Height: 21 cm approx. Width 10 cm approx. Weight: 296 grams approx
