Description

Made by Thomas Bishton in 1903, this superb SOLID SILVER CARD CASE is a real quality antique. Of rectangular form with scalloped edges to all sides, this lovely card case has a beautifully chased decoration of scrolls and flowers and has a blank cartouche which could be used to personalise this exceptional piece. Made from heavy gauge silver and large enough to take modern business cards or credit cards, the case is free from any added inscriptions, monograms or initials. This stunning card case is in excellent condition despite being almost 115 years old and would make a fabulous gift for someone or would add to any collection. *****
