Description

WILLIAM SHAYER: an interesting and well composed OIL PAINTING on board which depicts a French provincial fisher girl; dog to her side, who is accompanied by a child sitting on a grey pony. Various boats can be seen in the distance against the hilly background. Signed and dated, lower left. 16.5 x 14.5ins (42 x 36.5cms) including the original frame. Christies stencil number to the reverse.  Although the inscribed detail to the slip frame refers to this painting being dated "1788", the signature clearly accredits this as being by Wm Shayer and dated 1851.

Internal Ref: 1403
