Description

19thc. mahogany inlaid small library bookcase Here we have this lovely cabinet bookcase of rare small size. Made in sections , with a double centre section and then a full section to each side. This makes it very easy to transport into a home. As this is a smaller version to the normal bookcases of this style it would sit well in a drawing room, lounge, hall or a library without being over powering. The bookcase is fitted 4 astragal glazed doors to the top and 4 cupboard doors below. The cupboard doors with inlaid banding ,as well as the glazed astgal doors.
