Description

A beautiful and classic well sized antique French steamer trunk with the locks stamped Paris F.A.M. In very much the Goyard manner this turn of the century travelling luggage / trunk has a monogrammed cover with a wooden strapping surround being finished at each edge in brass along with brass work on the corners for protection. This trunk features the all of the quintessential details, down to its lovely aged travel labels to the top, inside and tied to one handles. This trunk is in good original condition with inside having the original lining again good condition for its age, the back right hand lock has been taken out with all of the original locks to the front stamped Paris F.A.M. The trunk also retains its thick leather handles to each side to complete the perfect look. The flat top on this piece makes it ideal for use as a coffee or side table. A very attractive trunk in good original condition.
