Description

An absolutely exquisite box and unbelievably without damage having survived the last 100 years or so, dating to around 1910. The box is made from a heavy gauge of silver, stamped 900S-M. The hinged lid fits well and the box is smothered in a wonderful white guilloché enamel, the lid decorated with a continuous garland of hand-painted pink roses. The interior of the box retains the original glided finish. Excellent condition measuring 2 1/2" in diameter x 3 /4" tall.
