SoldItem Reference: SA469970*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

An antique full hunter Waltham pocket watch, P S Bartlett grade, with chain. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed P S Bartlett which is the movement grade... Patten Sargeant Bartlett was one of the early employees of the Boston Watch Company which went on to become the Waltham Watch Company. He subsequently left Waltham to work for the National Watch Company at Elgin Illinois but eventually returned to Waltham to work as a salesman before opening his own wholesale business. As well as being fully signed, the movement also has the serial number 18,063,350 which dates it back to 1910. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch itself measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gold plated and was made by the Dennison Watch Case Company... Aaron Dennison had close connections with Waltham. The case is in good condition and the engine turned detail is nice and crisp. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is an acrylic lens. It is very common for the original glass lenses to be replaced and we see this often... it is difficult to tell the differen...
