Description

A very fine and good heavy weight, solid silver Pepperette. The perfectly shaped dome top pulls off the cylindrical base, which is a nice simple design with no engravings or embossing. The underneath of the pepperette shows very clear hallmarks for The London Assay Office with a date mark of 1934, as well as the Lion Passant for sterling silver. It is also marked Harrods London SW with the mark of RWB, the initials for Richard Woodman Burbridge (the most highly rated Harrod's silversmith). Condition: This pepperette is in great antique condition. Hallmarks and maker's marks: London 1934 by Harrods (Richard Woodman Burbridge). Measurements: Height: 6.14 cm approx Diameter at widest part: 3.13 cm approx. Weight: 41 grams approx.
