Description

Early C19th late George III period mahogany 4-tier etagere. Smart quality etagere with well-turned uprights capped by turned urn finials, and fitted with a 'concealed' drawer to the base. The mahogany lined drawer retains its original blue paper lining to the bottom. The side returns beneath the platforms with a well moulded profile. Raised on turned and tapering feet, fitted with original quality brass cup castors. Well-selected figured mahogany which has a rich colour and patina, retaining its original surface and skin. In excellent condition, has been cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Minor wear to original polished surfaces and very minor surface cracks commensurate with age and use.
