Description

Nice shape early 19th century George III mahogany serving table. The table stands on six beautifully turned thin legs. Both the front and sides of the carcass are shaped with the top beautifully shaped to match the legs. The thick top has a multiple reeded edge mould. There is a boxwood and ebony line inlay to the frieze. The table is in good original condition and is a lovely colour with good patination from years of waxing. SIZE; 54" wide by 24" deep by 33" high CIRCA; 1800
