Description

Original William IV rosewood sewing box on stand dating from the 1830-40's period & in good condition. The inside has all the original compartments & is lined with old paper, which is in good condition. The top is cross banded & it has all that typical William IV incised carving around the top edge. It sits on a turned column, which in turn sits on a platform base with cabriole legs on original porcelain casters. These tables are quite hard to find in such good condition. Width - 13.3", 34 cm Depth - 17.7", 45 cm Height - 27.2", 69 cm
