Description

This superbly decorated ANTIQUE SILVER HAND MIRROR was made by the well-known and sought after silversmith Henry Matthews in 1909. Decorated with garlands and flowers the mirror has a foliate borders and a blank cartouche which could be used to personalise this lovely mirror. Free from any added engravings, monograms or initials, this beautiful hand mirror is in very good condition (see condition report below) despite being over 105 years old, would look good in any setting and would make a lovely gift for someone.

 Condition  Used / Very Good There are no repairs. There are two dinks to the side of the mirror and a small area of slight flattening to the back of the mirror. Some minor age / usage marks to the silver. The mirror surface has minor usage marks but there is NO fogging. There are NO wear holes in the silver. Overall in very good condition for a hand mirror of this age. *****
