Description

This EDWARDIAN THREE FOLD LEATHER & OAK SCREEN dates from circa 1910. One side of the SCREEN has its original leather cover, decorated with brass studding, and is of a good rich colour. The reverse is of oak framed panels with raised, oval lozenges. The screen is decorative from all sides. The condition is good. The oak is the original colour and the leather has a character which has developed over the years. There is a small worn patch to one corner. Height: 66 inches (168 cm) Width of One Panel: 18.5 inches (47 cm) Depth of One Panel: 0.75 inches (2 cm)
