Description

This is another very elegant mahogany plant stand with delicate cross-hatched circular inlay around the top shelf. Additionally the central mahogany column has wonderful vertical inlay stripes. Each of the three well shaped legs has two parallel lines of inlay, and the three feet have a most intricate inlay pattern (but with slight wear). Ideal for providing a stand for large swags of flowing Spring or Summer flowers.... This plant stand is in very good condition, and it is very stable on its three legs. This antique was produced in the era of Queen Victoria. This was a period in history when Great Britain was at its apogee of power and wealth. The British Empire at its height was the largest empire in history and, for nearly a century, had been the foremost global power. The British Empire held sway over 400 million people, nearly a quarter of the world population at the time, and the Royal Navy was the most powerful navy in the world. This wonderful antique item of furniture well represents the confidence and strength of this particular era. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition...
