Description

'British Frigate Success attacking Genereux Feb. 18 1800 winging her and delaying her until Nelson arrived - This engagement took place during the blockade of Malta, where the French garrison were running out of supplies. - A convoy was organised from Toulon, but the British, under the overall command of Admiral Nelson from his base at Palermo, were blockading the Island. - The French were sighted on 18th February 1800 and HMS Success, which was a 32 gun frigate of the British Navy launched in 1781, sighted the much larger Genereux and engaged her. - Although badly damaged herself, Success succeeded in damaging the Genereux and mortally wounding the commander Contre-amiral Perree, delaying the Genereux until the arrival of the remaining British ships. - The painting is framed in an 3" ornate, pierced, swept gilt frame and will be supplied wired and ready to hang. - Condition: Excellent Order Throughout - Measurements Height 25.75 Inches Width. 35.5 Inches - Delivery UK + £50 / Worldwide Supply (Please Request A Quote) - Telephone Enquires : 07765 856171.
