Description

1920s silver pocket watch and chain. The watch has a nice quality Swiss stem-winding movement which is working well. The movement is protected by an inner cover. The watch measures 48.4 mm diameter excluding the stem and the loop. The case is silver and has London import marks for 1926 with the case importers mark G.S George Stockwell. The case has light surface marking from use and some mild denting but overall is in nice condition for a 1920s piece. The watch glass is in nice condition. The white dial has a couple of faint hairline cracks although hardly noticeable to the naked eye but overall it is in nice condition for a 1920s piece. The watch has blued steel hands. The watch comes on a continental .800 silver chain. The chain measures 26cm including the clasps. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box. Price includes worldwide postage.
