Description

Very stylish & elegant antique mahogany console side table, with a serpentine shaped front. It's in good condition & dates from around the 1910 period. The mahogany top is cross banded in another wood which looks like yew wood, or something similar. It also has a reeded edge. The three drawers have fine dovetails plus they are also cross banded & have original brass handles. The corners have oval panels & the turned reeded legs kick out a little at the bottom. This side table has nice proportions & is very fine quality. Length - 48", 122 cm Depth - 22", 56 cm Height - 30", 76 cm
