Description

Rare early C19th George IV period carved rosewood jardiniere stand or crocus table in the manner of the cabinet-maker Thomas King (1790-1839) . Unusual circular-topped pedestal jardiniere stand with a solid rosewood column of almost organic form . The lidded top with a 'lappet' carved edge surround to the lidded aperture to house a plant or jardiniere. The top of the column modelled as a lotus or crocus flower with carved bosses around the collar. The spreading ribbed column onto a circular foot raised upon 4 carved scroll feet. Excellent original colour and condition with a rich patina. The removable top with a 'thumb-hole' for ease of removal , the basin beneath with a drainage hole . Some minor distortion the the underside probably caused by damp from inclusion of the potted plant . Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. H 45" W 12" D 12" England c.1830
