Description

A really lovely George III japanned corner cupboard in the Chinese style with oriental landscapes, flora and birds. The cupboard has three interior shelves and has very pretty original butterfly hinges and matching escutcheon plates. The lock is missing, but the original internal catches are intact and the doors open and hold closed well. There is a small gap to one of the backboards and a short split to one door and the lower cornice. These can be seen in the photographs and are not detrimental to the appeal of the cupboard. The general surface decoration is very good and the colour and patina are excellent. A very decorative Georgian cupboard to add style to any interior. c.1790 Height: 34" (86.5cm) Depth: 15.25" (38.5cm)
