Description

This is an antique, Victorian, country kitchen table dating to c.1900. In large proportions, seating 8-10, this beautiful country table is made from stout stock, the four plank oak top being one inch thick, displays rustic, country charm. Raised on half bun feet, the four baluster legs are united by an 'H' stretcher that doubles as a foot rest at either end. Beneath the top the recessed frieze features an elongated diamond relief moulding on the longer sides. A charming country table ideal for daily use. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
