Description

Garniture of 5 early C19th Japanese Imari pattern porcelain vases of small proportions. Interesting and decorative mantelpiece garniture of 5 vases, comprising of 3 lidded bulbous bodied vases and a pair of flared-neck sleeve vases. Each of the lidded vases with an unusual finial to the lids, featuring chickens sat atop nests. All vases decorated in typical Imari colour palette, white bodies with rich iron-red hues, blues and with gold highlights. The lids with minor chips and nicks, the sleeve vases also with minor historic neck chips. No cracks or damages to the main bodies. Wonderful set of vases to decorate a mantle or pediment of a bookcase or cabinet to add period exoticism. H 11" W 6" D 6" H(Sleeve vases) 6" W 3" D 3" Japan c.1830
