Description

Large stunning looking Swedish antique burr walnut Wellington chest, which is also fine quality. It dates from around the 1880's period & is in good condition. I've had quite a few of these in the past & this one is by far the nicest I've had. Please enlarge all the images, because there are many great features. The top & drawer fronts are burr walnut with wonderful veneers. The drawers have fine dovetails & brass handles. There is a locking bar on the right hand side, but we don't have a key & the other upright looks identical. both uprights have some fine carvings, especially near the tops. This chest has an interesting top section & sits on flat turned front bun feet. One thing that's not showing in the images is the 2nd drawer down has a pull down mechanism so you can slide things in & out. This chest is very impressive & fabulous quality, plus the wood has a very warm colour. Width - 25.2", 64 cm Depth - 20", 51 cm Height - 58.7", 149 cm
