Description

A handsome pair of antique English silver plated entree dishes, perfect for the grandest of dining tables, dating to the late Victorian or Edwardian era. Both come with removable handles, allowing them to be used as four open serving dishes sitting flat. The highly decorative handle is hand-chased. The front of each has a family Armorial crest of a Cockerel or Rooster. Excellent condition, each measuring 12 1/4" x 9 1/2" x 5 1/2" to top of handle.
