Description

Here we have a very large, attractive antique pine corner cupboard. It is one piece, so will need to access through doorways wider than 32.5" Dating from 1880 and in good condition for its age. It has been waxed in the past but in our opinion needs some work - our professional waxing service, to freshen it up and give it some shine and added protection. Please let us know if you would like to buy it as it is seen here. There are two cupboards, both with double doors that are mounted on the original attractive external hinges - allowing them to open fully. Inside the top cupboard there are two shelves and the bottom cupboard has a single shelf. In our opinion this piece would work very well in a sitting room, or snug, to house / hideaway your TV. The shelves in the top section could be adjusted to your TV requirements - please contact us for more information. Height 79", width 62.5", depth 32.5"
