Description

Art Deco at it's finest from renowned French maker Odyv, this is a working clock featuring alarm function. Displaying classic Deco form in an equine scene; a lady in typical flowing robe strokes a thoroughbred foal drinking from a pail. Beautifully patinated and mounted upon a stepped plinth this piece appeals on many levels. Flanked by the original garnitures the base of the clock is marked with the makers name and both the clock and garnitures are marked '46'. Presented in good antique condition with patination commensurate with age, a fab thing.
