Description

Small elegant pair of antique French lamp tables in lovely condition & with some nice detail. The tops are interesting with what looks like three different woods. The outside ring looks like kingwood or possibly also rosewood, the inside ring is rosewood & the central panel looks like satinwood. There's also satinwood & ebony inlays between the sections of wood. On the outside top edge is a pierced gilt metal gallery, with more mounts below. The tapered legs are mahogany. I would date these tables to around the 1910 period. Diameter - 16.5", 42 cm Height - 22.9", 58 cm
