Description

Victorian honey oak pedestal desk Here we have to offer you this Victorian desk on a pair of pedestals of a great size for the home or at work. The top with its inset leather writing surface, this has been hand dyed and hand tooled by our own craftsmen. The leather is in our own antiqued colour of burnt orange, very popular with our customers as it fits in so well with so many colours in the home. There are 3 drawers along the top of the desk. To each side of the knee-hole is a pedestal, both with 3 further graduated drawers that are lined in mahogany. The desk is polished all the way around so that the desk can be used away from a wall if so required. The desk comes into 3 parts, and this makes it so easy to move around your office or home. # # (I would caution if you find desks that are not finished all around as well as in 3 parts as this probably will point to it being a conversion from another piece) 122cms wide 68cms deep 76cms high
