Description

A very good Edwardian period inlaid mahogany glazed bookcase. Of good construction in solid mahogany and decorated with satinwood banding and stringing inlay. The top is cross banded and sits over a pair of glazed doors (lockable with key supplied). The doors open to access an interior with 3 adjustable shelves giving plenty of storage/display capacity. All standing on a sturdy plinth base. This attractive and highly practical bookcase is offered for sale in excellent condition. We have cleaned and waxed it in our workshops and it now has a very good colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 122cms Depth 30.5cms Height 112cms
