

SA475997

Portrait of violin player by Neville Stephen Lytton, of CLAUDE TRYON

Price

GBP 1,995

| USD $2,700 | EUR 2,334

Item Reference: SA475997Date of manufacture: 1920

Dimensions

Height = 117 cm (46.1")

Width = 98 cm (38.6")

Depth = 4 cm (1.6")

Description

A Portrait of Claude Tryon (d.1949), holding a violin. This is a painting of the artist's son-in-law. Oil on canvas in gilt frame. Early 20th century size of painting is 89.5 cm x 73.5 cm (35.5 inches x 29 inches approx) whilst the overall size is 117 cm x 98 cm (46 x 38.5 inches approx). Provenance: By descent in the family of the artist. Claude Tryon, an engineer, married Lady Winifred Lytton in November 1921. He is buried at Culbone, near Porlock, Exmoor. In overall very good condition with some minor restoration.

Neville Stephen Lytton, son of Robert Bulwer-Lytton, 1st Earl of Lytton and Edith Villiers. He was the grandson of the famous novelist, Edward Bulwer-Lytton. His siblings included the suffragette Constance Lytton, Betty Balfour, Countess of Balfour and sister-in-law of the Prime Minister, and Emily Lutyens, wife of the architect Edwin Lutyens. He was educated at Eton College and at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. During World War I, Neville Lytton served as an officer on the Western Front. For his service, the French Government decorated him with the Chevalier of the Legion of Honour. Britain's Imperial War Museum, and France's Musée de...

Seller Details

Country House Fine Art

Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 01653 699 780 or 07771 714 575

International Tel: +44 1653 699 780 or +44 7771 714 575