Description

A fine quality early Victorian table by the prestigious makers Johnstone and Jeanes of New Bond Street, London. Of excellent construction in mahogany and with the top fitted with its original leather writing surface. There is a drawer to the freeze and the whole table sits well on turned and fluted legs terminating in splayed feet (fitted with their original brass castors). This lovely table could be used as a writing, side or lamp table in different room scenarios within the modern home. It is offered for sale in excellent condition with a wonderful colour and patina ; cleaned and waxed in our workshops, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 102cms Depth 69cms Height 76cms Johnstone & Jeanes were makers of fine quality furniture from the formation of their partnership in 1842. Johnstone had been in partnership with Robert Jupe who together patented the metamorphic dining table, but after a falling out Jupe went his own way. Johnstone & Jeanes exhibited at all the major exhibitions in London in 1851 and 1862 and also in Paris in 1878. The Royal Collection has a piece of Johnstone & Jeanes furniture, a walnut veneered table.
