Description

A good pair of French leather club armchairs with original brass studding. The chairs, which are very comfortable, have a lovely line with scrolling arms, original loose leather cushions and a wonderful patination to the warm brown leather. The condition is good, there is an old repair to the front of one of the chairs, which has been well done. The chairs have areas of wear and some minor cracks and distressing. All these can clearly be seen in the photographs and merely add to the character and charm of these antique chairs. An excellent pair of club armchairs to add comfort and style to any interior. c.1930 Height: 33" (84cm) Width: 30.25" (77cm) Depth: 33.5" (85cm) Height of seat: 16" (41cm)
