Description

A smaller than average old Welsh dresser that has recently been professionally waxed polished to a very high standard. Overall a good size for most modern kitchens, with a nice size work surface. Dating from the late Victorian time, it is in excellent condition for its age. There are two shelves to the top section, above two small deep drawers, with the original attractive brass drop handles, and a double door cupboard in the bottom section. The cupboard has a single shelf that spans all the way across. It is ready for collection or delivery. Height 80", width 42", depth 19"
