Description

Charming country oak side table with an arrangement of 3 drawers with brass drop handles. It has a planked top and is set on attractive turned legs. It is in good original condition with a lovely rich patina. It is strong and sturdy and the drawers run well. There are normal minor signs of age but it is a good honest little table. There are some historic woodworm holes in the back of the table which have been treated as a precaution. They haven't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. The brass handle has also been changed at some point. The table has been cleaned and given a light wax and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
