Description

This is an antique chair, early Victorian buckle back dating to circa 1840. Top quality mahogany with excellent colour and good proportion. Displaying good grain interest and an aged patina. Exhibiting transitional design from buckle to balloon back. Raised on delightfully reeded, ring turned, tulip front legs. Pinched, swept square section rear legs. Featuring a serpentine seat rail with fluted delineation. Pinched stiles rise into superbly formed back with carved interest. Traditionally filled, stuff over seat pad. Cream damask cloth in fair, used order, finished with brocade trim. Easily reupholstered to suit any décor. A lovely and comfortable chair, ideal as a desk, side or bedroom piece. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
