Description

12 Large Victorian Grocers Toleware Canisters and Tins with Scoops This is an amazing find, a complete set of 19th Century Grocers Tins, these are larger than the domestic type of storage tins, they are in black and red toleware, and even 2 of the original scoops have survived with them The tins are cylindrical and have tight fitting hinged lids, they are in relatively good condition especially considering they are about 150 years old, and still usable Most of the Catches are in good condition and all of the hinges are good, the paint also is in sound if a little shabby 11 of the tins are 10" high and 9" in diameter, one is larger it is 13.5 " high and 11" in diameter FN44
