Description

This inlaid Sutherland table from the 1920s / 30s is in very clean and tidy condition with a wide inlay around the top, as can be seen in the pictures. It is a most useful occasional table shutting to just 7 inches wide when closed when open it is 24ins wide by 29 inches with both leaves up. It can go against a chair or settee and can be out of the way, without taking up much space, to be brought out when needed. A superb table with lots of flexibility with great colour and finish.
