Description

A 1919 Mobilia pocket watch. The watch has a Swiss 17-jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Mobilia. This was one of several names registered by the Astin Watch Company of La Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover (there are a few scratches where this inner cover has been opened in the past). The watch itself measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the case backs for London (import mark), 1919, with an importer's mark for George Stockwell. There are a couple of areas of indentations to the back of the watch but the front is in good condition. From 1 June 1907, Stockwells acted as assay agents, facilitating the import into Britain of foreign gold and silver items, which had to be assayed and hallmarked in a UK assay office before being released for retail. The watch has an acrylic lens which is in good condition. The dial is in lovely condition with blue steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box. Free worldwide shipping
