Description

Large River Landscape Oil Painting in the Style of Everett Watson Mellor (1878-1965) - This is a lovely landscape oil painting, concentrating on the portrayal of the reflection of clouds and trees in tranquil water. - It is signed in the lower left hand corner bearing an indistinct inscription which appears to read S.Moller (German Surname). - Dutch, North German (also Möller), and Danish (Møller): occupational name for a miller. See also Moeller. In the form Moller, this name is established from the Netherlands to Poland. It is also found in Sweden (Möller), where it is of either German or Danish origin, and in Norway, where it is of Danish origin. - 'SIMILAR IN STYLE TO' Artist Everett Watson Mellor who was the son of noted artist William Mellor. - The painting depicts the still waters of a lake which is almost in a bowl, surround by tree covered slopes apart from a grassy slope in the centre. It is a bright sunny day, and the waters of the lake are still and show the reflection of the landscape superbly. - The painting is framed in a 3 1/4" ornate, swept gilt frame and will be supplied wired and ready to hang. -
